This Week on the Farm

Well, yesterday's event, the Second Annual CSA Potluck Picnic, will not soon be forgotten. Members and farm supporters came to the farm to celebrate, socialize, and stuff their faces. Thanks so much to all who attended, especially to those who volunteered their time and energy to making the day a success. These people include but are not limited to: Nikki Honauer, Tom Kilmurray, The Backyard Band, Mark Binder, Kim Wiegand, Peter Swazek, Steve Whitney, Ken Ayers, Bill Sequino, Mark Schwager, Gil Barden, Dave Sundberg, Donna Dyer and Junior Girl Scout Troop #637, Mary Louise and Ed Formisano, and Rebecca Hodgson. Events like this simply wouldn't happen if our members and friends weren't there to help us. We would like everyone who attended to know how much we appreciate everything that they did. We were touched by the spirit of community that prevailed...

A surprise frost and other events in our life have added a strange twist to the final weeks of the season. After this week, there are 2 more weeks to our CSA season. As always, we will work diligently to see that you get your fair share. We hope you have enjoyed the season so far and that you continue to enjoy the remaining weeks.

Pie Contest Results

One of the trademark events of the CSA Potluck Picnic is the pie contest. Our heartfelt thanks go out to the judges and organizers of this event. Here's what pie contest organizer Kim Wiegand has to say: "The Pie Judges evaluated the pies on the basis of appearance, flavor and texture, and/or any other arbitrary criteria they felt like using. There were those who liked sweet, those preferring tart, but each pie was wonderful in its own unique way. All were delicious. It made for some tough decisions. Here are the results of the pie contest:

Any other pie-except-strictly-apple:

- * 1st place: Pam Thomas
- * 2nd place: Catherine Stahl
- * 3rd place: Mark Sunday

Apple pie:

- * 1st place: Mark Duperon
- * 2nd place: Calle Fetzer
- * 3rd place: the Capobiancos

An honorary mention went to Anneka Lukas-Jogl as the youngest pie-maker.*
